From the Next Postmaster.

The INTELLIGENCER appreciates the elegant lunch sent in last night by Commodore Charley Behler. Yesterday was the first day he has been out doors for five weeks, but from now on the other Democratic aspirants for the Wheeling postoffice will, in order to keep pace with Charley, have to get a Nancy Hanks move on themselves.

Quick Railroad Work.

Yesterday a large force of expert railroad hands were put to work by the Pittsburgh, Wheeling & Kentucky railroad, moving the main track between that company's freight depot and the Baltimore & Ohio station over toward the river, to constitute a new track over the western bridge across the creek, and laying a new main track. The work was no small contract, but it was hustled through so energetically that it only occupied a few hours, and the new main track was ready for the passage of trains last evening.

Shocking Sudden Death.

For some time past Miss Post, of Washington, Pa., has been visiting the daughters of Mr. Alex. Morrison, on East Fifteenth street. One day last week she complained of severe headache, and became worse so rapidly that it was at last concluded to summon a physician. He did what he could to relieve her, but the next day she became suddenly worse, and before the doctor could reach her again she was dead. Her body was shipped home to Washington Saturday afternoon. She was subject to severe headaches, and no grave result of her illness was anticipated. It was a terrible blow to her family and friends.

Chief Officers Elected.

That popular social organization the O. W. L. Club held a special meeting yesterday afternoon, and, besides transacting a large amount of other important business, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Ed Frank; vice president, M. H. Kennedy; secretary, M. H. McNabb; treasurer, Theodore W. Fink; financial secretary, Ernest L. Frame.

The club is in a most flourishing condition, and will soon be heard from with one of their popular entertainments. A letter was read from Hon. Philip Losere, of New York City, saying he would be here in a few weeks, and the boys resolved to give him a royal reception, as they always do when he comes this way.

The new officers are all well known, and will fill their respective offices with credit, both to themselves and the club.

Circuit Court Proceedings.

In the circuit court Saturday in the case of H. Forbs vs. Thomas G. Britts administrator, and others, an order was entered remanding the cause to rules for an amended bill.

In the case of State vs. Owen Sullivan, jr., indicted for allowing gambling, No. 1, there was a fine of $10 and costs.

In the case of State vs. Owen Sullivan, jr., indicted for allowing gaming at a tavern, a fine of $20 and costs was imposed, his license was declared forfeited and he was required to give bond in the sum of $200 for his good behavior for one year, and in default to be confined in jail for not more than four months.

In the cases of the state vs. the Belmont Brewing Company, twelve indictments, the defendant asked to be allowed to go to the United States circuit court. The state objected, and argument will be had at a future time.

In the case of Reese vs. the Wheeling & Elm Grove Railroad Company, the jury went out.

Rev. Sylvanus Lane

Of the Cincinnati M. E. Conference, makes a good point when he says: "We have for years used Hood's Sarsaparilla in our family of five, and find it fully equal to all that is claimed for it. Some people are greatly prejudiced against patent medicines, but how the patent can hurt a medicine and not a machine is a mystery of mysteries to me."

THREE BURGLARIES.

The Thieves get in their Work out in East Wheeling.

THE PLACES ENTERED AND ROBBED.

Though the Robbers get Comparatively Little to Pay them for their Trouble—Fourth Attempt Proves a Failure—They are Seen while in one of the Places.

Yesterday morning at an early hour burglars succeeded in effecting an entrance to three business places in East Wheeling, and also made an abortive attempt to get into a store in the central part of the city, but whether the same gang did the work in the two localities is a question which it would be hard to solve with the information so far accessible.

In East Wheeling the grocery store of Mr. Morrison, adjoining Goetz's drug store, on Sixteenth street, was entered, and the small sum of change left in the till was taken. The burglars used tools which would indicate that they were either professionals or pretty slick amateurs. Nothing else was carried off, so far as could be determined yesterday, but the cash, and there was not a great deal of that.

Herman Hoss's meat shop was also visited, and the thieves succeeded in getting in and stealing what little money had been left in the place. They were evidently mainly after money, as they took nothing else.

Thomas McLaughlin's saloon was entered a little before five o'clock in the morning. The thieves broke into the place by forcing open a large double gate leading into the back yard. They then tried to force open the rear door with a jimmy, but failing in this, opened the transom above and climbed through that.

They then opened the front door on Jacob street so as to have an easy method of egress in case they were discovered by the proprietor, who lives over the saloon.

While they were at work in the place a newsboy passed, and seeing a dim light burning in the place and the Sixteenth street door open, he hesitated whether to enter or not, but finally concluded not to. The first man he met, however, he told of his suspicions, but the burglars had then left the place.

Here they secured all the money left in the place, only four or five dollars in change, and as much stuff as they wanted to drink.

There is understood to be a clue to the thieves, but so far as known none of them has been caught.

An Attempted Burglary.

Night before last an attempt was made to break into the hardware store of John Heiner, on Main street. The burglars were not successful, but yesterday morning the signs of the attempt were plainly visible. A jimmy had been used on the front door. Why the attempt did not succeed can only be conjectured. It is supposed persons passing on the street frightened the burglars off.

In Olden Times

people overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

WRINKLES, and hollow cheeks, and dull, sunken eyes, don't always mean that a woman's old. Half the time, they only show that she's overworked or suffering. To such women, to every woman who is tired or afflicted, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription safely and certainly brings back health and strength. It's a legitimate medicine that corrects and cures a tone the invigorates and builds up a nervous that soothes and strengthens. For all the derangements, irregularities and weaknesses peculiar to women, it is the only guaranteed remedy. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back.

It won't do to experiment with Catarrh. There's the constant danger of driving it to the lungs. You can have a perfect and permanent cure with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.
